SOCIAL and Fashionable society will attend the dance of the Richmond German Club in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel this evening from 3 to 12 o'clock. It will be a lovely affair and Colonel Jo Lane Stern will lead. Patronesses for Play.

Patronesses for Play.

A partial list of patronesses for the play to be given by the younger set of the Equal Suffrage League, "Votes for Women," includes Mrs. John Skelton Williams, Miss Cally Ryland, Miss Carolyn Martin, Mrs. W. Russell Bowie, Mrs. Melville C. Branch, Mrs. Moncure Perkins, Mrs. John Lyons, Mrs. Charles Posher, Mrs. B. B. Valentine, Mrs. Sally Nelson Robins, Mrs. Clarence Cadot, Mrs. Hampden Chamberlayne, Mrs. George L. Street, Jr., Mrs. Charles V. Meredith, Mrs. Walter S. McNeil, Misses Marian and Kate Meade, Lou Belle Jones, Mary Lewis, Mrs. Todd Dabney, Mrs. Hill Crquhart, Mrs. Garnett 'Nelson, Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. de Saussure, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Mrs. Thomas Adkins, Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Adkins Mrs. Dabney Creating Mrs. Thomas Adking Mrs. Thomas Adkins Mr sure, Mrs. Warren, Mrs. Dabney Cren-shaw, Misses Lucy and Caroline Cole-man, Mrs. Archer Jones, Mrs. Hugh man, Mrs. Archer Jones, Mrs. Hugh Rose, Mrs. Amos Grover, Mrs. John S. Munce, Mrs. Henry Sampson, Mrs. Harvey Clarke, Mrs. Thomas Murrell, Mrs. S. W. Meek, Mrs. Ben Crump, Mrs. Jack de Treville, Miss Emily Jones, Mrs. Milton Marcuse, Mrs. Block, Mrs. Greenwald, Mrs. James Dunlop, Mrs. A. L. McClellan, Mrs. Clayton Torrence, Mrs. John Robertson, Mrs. Thomas Owen, Mrs. Haskins Hobson and others. At Home on Wednesday.

Mrs. William T. Oppenhimer and her debutante daughter, Miss Sarah Oppenhimer, will be at home from 5 to 7 o'clock at their residence, 321 West Grace Street. Mrs. Oppenhimer and her daughter will receive each Wednesday afternoon in February until Ash afternoon in February until Ash

Mrs. Frederick William Scott gave a box party at the Bijou on Saturday night in honor of the birthday of her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Scott. Be-fore coming to the theatre to see the Grayce Scott players in "Merely Mary Ann," there was a dance at the home of Mrs. Scott, with supper served afof Mrs. Scott, with supper served afterward. The theatre party occupied the two lower boxes, and the guests included Miss Eleanor Parrish, Miss Maria Adkins, Miss Louise Branch, Miss Martha Mary Hoadley, Miss Elizabeth Witt, Miss Elizabeth Jennings, Miss Alice Hoge, Miss Katherine Valentine, Miss Dorothy Bruce, Miss Elizabeth Taylor, Miss Virginia Ellington, Miss Sara Powers, Miss Jane Strudwick Miss Margaret Johns, Miss Bland Cox, Miss Beth Palmer, Miss Marfon More-Miss Margaret Johns, Miss Bland Cox, Miss Beth Palmer, Miss Marion Meredith, Miss Mary Mason Williams, Miss Sallie Cameron, Miss Helen Johnson, Miss Lena Caperton, Miss Rose Caperton, Miss Ellen Wallace and Miss Isabel Scott. Mrs. Scott and her mother, Mrs. Buford, chaperoned the party in one box and Mrs. William H. Palmor the Buferd, chaperoned the party in one box and Mrs. William H. Palmer the party in the other.

The Scott home was decorated in vaces of roses and snapdragons, and the hallroom where the dance took place, was arranged with the same dience, a dience, a

John S Munce will lead the

Mrs. John S. Munce will lead the allows of Ellen Glasgow's "Virginia" at the meeting of the Literary Round Table at the club on Wedgesday afternoon at 4:30 c'clock. Mrs. Archer Jones is chairman of the Round Table.

Entertained Last Week.

Mrs. Pease and Misses Mary and Ruth Pease, assisted by Miss Chandler, received a number of their friends on Friday evening. The parlors were cess.

Concert in Emporia.

The trio of artists from Richmond who appeared at the armory in Emporia on Wednesday night scored a success.

Approaching Wedding.

A wedding of much interest to be celebrated on Wednesday morning at

New Malaga Grapes, lb......12c New Cranberries, quart12c Fresh Nearby Eggs, dozen82c

New Dates, 1b.90

S. Ullman's Son Down Town Stores: 1820-1822 E. Main. Uptown Store: 506 E. Marsfall.

HAVE YOU SEEN THE

New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'3?

THE REINACH CO., Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET. MILLIN'ERY-Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets and Detroit Jewel Gas Ranges make sweet tempered housewives.

JURGENS Adams and Broad.

Newest 1914 Blouses

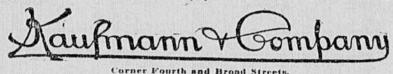

The modes of the moment are lile rally presented among these blouses. They are the choicest styles of the season All who see them admire.

Frilly Shadow Lace and Batiste Blouses-those new, pretty ones that sold so quickly; another ot has just been re- $1.12

Colored Crepe Waists, with stylish drop shoulders; flat col-lar and turn back cuffs; pink, light blue and lavender; $1.98

Nifty Blousey Blouses of figured cotton crepe; vest of net, finished with pearl buttons and pleated shadow $2.98

Handsome Lingerie Blouses of voile and marquisette. Fluffy Ruffle styles, beautifully designed in laces $3.98

11 o'clock is that of Miss Anna Wildbore and Ira Bright Priddy, the ceremony to take place at St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church. Miss Wildbore is a daughter of Mrs. Sarah Wildbore, formerly of Richmond, but now of Aften, and Mr. Priddy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Priddy, of this city. Visiting in this city, has returned to her home in Louisa.

Miss Florence Leslie and Miss Laura Williams, of Portsmouth, have been spending several days in Richmond.

Mrs. S. W. Paulette, Jr., who has been

Card Club Entertained.

The Chalfonte Five Hundred Club met on Friday evening at the home of Miss Katle McIntosh, on Clay Street. There were four tables engaged, and refreshments were served after the by Miss Nancy Drumeller and Seymour List, and the second by Miss Violet Devereux and Elder T. Reynolds. The Benefit Performance.

As a result of the Randolph-Macon Woman's College alumnae meeting at the Jefferson recently, the association at the Little Theatre on Friday. A de-lightful program, with the "Prisoner of Zenda," by Hackett, as a leader, and The Scott home was decorated in vases of roses and snapdragons, and he hallroom where the dance took lace, was arranged with the same lowers.

It the Woman's Club.

The Rev. Y. Minakuchi, a native Japhese, will lecture before the memers of the Woman's Club and their usests this afternoon at 4:20 o'clock. It ill be an unusually interesting affair and tea will be poured at the conclusion of the lecture. Members are asked to note the change of hour from 4 to of the church will give a Valentine se-cial. An interesting program has been arranged, and the affair is for the Toombs and Mrs. J. M. Powell left Richmond on Saturday evening for a tour through Southern Florida, They Meeting this Afternoon.

St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. John L. Satterfield, of 2719 East Grace Street A full attendance is requested as very important business will be up for consideration.

100mis and Mis. 3. 3. 100mis left with the saturday evening for a tour through Southern Florida. They expect to spend some time in Tampa, Jacksonville, St. Augustine and Plant City, and will not return to Richmond for two months.

at the University of Virginia

Miss Mallie Floyd Miller has returned to the city, after spending several weeks in Lynchburg with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Hairston, who spent last week at the Jefferson Hotel has returned to Chatmoss, in Miss Kathleen Baxter Richardson is Mattoax.

Henry B. Hill continues very ill at Grace Hospital, where he was operated upon last Thursday.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, who has been visiting Miss Esther Wool at New Jamestown, has returned to the city. Miss Nan L. Stamper will leave this to visit relatives and friends in Washington.

Mrs. A. L. Adamson left town last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Hall, in New York. Mrs. M. H. Coleman, who was operated upon recently at St Luke's Hospital, continues quite sick. Admiral Harrie Webster has returned to the city, after a short visit to

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith, of Minne-apolis, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, at "Buck Hill,"

Mrs. J. H. Schoenberger, of 523 North Eighth Street, is improving, after a recent illness. Miss Conde Bridges has returned to er home in Ashland, after a visit to

Mrs. P. P. Lipscomb, of this city, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. R. W Watkins, in Halifax County. Mrs. Ryland R. Gwathmey has re-turned to Louisa, after spending some time in Richmond.

Mrs. G. F. Delarue, of Ashland, has been the recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Wellington Blunt, in Richmond. Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Blair and Miss Su-sle Blair have returned to Scottsville, 822.50. Set up FREE. Mrs. Walter Chiles, who has been

Mrs. S. W. Paulette, Jr., who has been here with relatives for a few days, has returned to Farmville. Mrs. A. T. Gordon, of Louisa County, is spending some time in this city.

Mrs. C. C. Tallaferro, of Roanoke, is the guest of friends here for a week.

Morson Keith has returned to the University of Virginia, after spending the week-end with his father, Judge James Keith, on Cathedral (Language Property of Mestminster Chapel, in London, His reputation is world-wide, and every minister in Richmond will endeavor to hear his address. James Keith, on Cathedral Place

Mrs. W. D. Cardwell, of Ashland, has been the guest of relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Grace Campbell, of Richmond, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cakey at their home in Salem. Miss Nellie Talbott has returned to Waynesboro, after a visit to Norfolk and Richmond Miss Kate Barton, who has been in Richmond for a few days, has returned to her home at Mount Clinton Miss Sallie Delarue, of Hanover County, is spending some time in this King Edward among his friends.

Mrs. J. F. Templeton and Miss Mary Osborne Templeton, of Waynesbore, are at the Jefferson Hotel here for several

W. R. Lucas, who has been in Richmond for a short stay, has returned to his home in Fredericksburg.

COTILLION AT V. P. I.

February Dance is Most Largely At-tended of Present Session.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Friday evening. The parlors were prettily decorated in pink carnations and ferns, and a buffet supper was served at 11 o'clock. Those present included Misses lieulah Chandler, Oakie Chandler, Ethel Hill, Zula Gregory, Elste Satterfield, Fannie Parriell, Lena Cole, Margaret Reanes, Phyllis Reanes, Lucile Palmatory, Grace Pease, Lucile Balley, Nellie Lloyd, Mary Pease, Ruth Pease; Messra, Richard James, Elmore Jones, Allen Merchant, Taylor Lafoon, Basil Burke, James Stone, Arthur Smith, Henry Nolde, Kenneth Wood, Oscar Poblig Gary Pease and B. Bryant.

The affair was chaperoned by Mrs. Lloyd, Mr, and Mrs. Lea and Mr. and Mrs. Pease.

Approaching Wedding. Blacksburg, Va., February 8.-The expresses itself in an entire absence of all affectation.

The planist, Mr. Womble, is an unusually sympathetic accompanist. His two solo numbers showed him to be a master of his art.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Grace Freeman, of Tampa, Fla. is the guest of Miss, Mary Week, on Park Avenue, after attending the dances of the Miss of Miss Mary Week, on the University of Virginia.

Schwarzschild Brothers.

Days of Sentiment

Each day is one which has a lingering sentiment for SOME

The Schwarzschild store realizes this and is prepared for every occasion.

You will find wonderfully beautiful gifts here-suited to every degree of Love or Friend-

No matter what kind of gift is desired, you will find it at Schwarzschild Brothers Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

Get Ready for 1914 Our Office Furniture Department can Bolve the question of Filing Cabinets, Desks, etc., for the new year. LET US "SHOW YOU."

Self Feeder

More sold than any other heater in Richmond. Prices, $18.50 and Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corp.

World's Greatest Preacher to Address Meeting at Grace Street Baptist.

NOTED MEN ON THE PROGRAM

McNeill, Souper, Gordon and Trotter to Be Heard During the Week.

Eminent Bible students, evangelists, authors and social service workers who are making a tour of the leading American cities under the extension department of the Winona Summer Assembly, will begin a series of meetings in Richmond to-night. The first meeting, which will be held at Grace Street Baptist Church to-night, at 8 oclock, will be addressed by Dr. G. Campbell Morgan, of London Dr. Campbell Morgan, of London Dr. Morgan has crossed the Atlantic forty-two times to speak before hig meetings in America. His work as author, preacher, lecturer, editor and college president has given him the title as the world's greatest procedure. the world's greatest preacher. In or-der to make the present tour, he de-clined a most urgent call signed by 70,900 people in Australia to appear there. All of the services at Grace Street Baptist Church are open to the public. A fifteen-minute song service, conducted by Fred B. Butler, will pre-cede the regular addresses world's greatest preacher.

Many Noted Speakers.
The program for the week is as fol-Monday evening-Dr. G. Campbell

Morgan, of London.

Tuesday evening—Dr. John McNell of Toronto.

evening-Dr. William Souper, of London.
Thursday evening-S. D. Gordon, of

New York.
Friday evening-Melville Trotter, of Through the activity of the Federa-tion of Men's Bible Classes of Rich-mond, it has been possible to secure these noted speakers. Dr. Morgan is paster of Westminster Chapel, in Lon-

McNelll and Souper.

Dr. John McNelll was discovered by

NEWS OF EASTERN SHORE

daily.

After the sermon at Hillie's Baptist Church on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. J. T. Haskins, read a deed conveying to the church a house and lot situated at Keller, valued at $3.000, to be used as a parsonage. It was the gift of J. H. Savage, and was a great surprise to the congregation.

Savage, and was a great surpless congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Kellam, of Belle Haven, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Bettle Kellam, to A. Carl Ward. The marriage will take place at an early date.

Many men from Accomac attended the inaugural exercises in Richmond.

The Onancock High School was recorganized the week following the intermediate examination. The reports

The Onancock High School was reorganized the week following the intermediate examination. The reports show that at least 50 per cent of the pupils will be promoted.

The directors of the Exmon Ice and String the Dand, with poer empty to furnish the towns of Kellor, Tellot Haven and Wills's Wharf with lights.

Miss Lucy Esther Finney, daughter of John S. Finney, and George Custis Boggs, both of Cashville, were married at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles S. Waples, in Philadelphila. The rite was performed by Rev.
W. S. Thompson, D. D. Miss Sabra M.
Boggs, of Finney, played the wedding march. Miss Sara Finney Waples, of Cape Charles, was maid of honor, and trip they will reside at Card wedding firip they will reside at Card wedding
Mrs. Markaret Virginia Chandler,
Mrs. Markaret Virginia Chandler, Wearn S. She had been sick with pneumonia for two weeks, but was improving. She ate her breakfast and swills setting on the side of the bed fell over unconscious, expiring in a fow minutes. Funeral services were conducted at her lite would bleed. She suffered much, as she cried night and day.

The Onamond Allies of the bed fell over unconscious, expiring in a fow minutes. Funeral services were conducted at her lite home, and burial was made in Mt. Holly Cemetery, Besides her husband, she is survived by twithout relief, until i sent for a sides her husband, she is survived by twitout relief, until i sent for a sides her husband, she is survived by twitout relief, until i sent for a side of the husband, she is survived by twitout relief, until i sent for a side her husband, she is survived by twitout relief, until i sent for a sides her husband, she is survived by twitout relief, until i sent for a side her husband, she is survived by twitout relief and change, and after four, days trouble of a change, and after four, days trouble of the serwide from the succession to the function in notwo weeks, but was the processing the husband with the function of the form and then the would bleed. She suffered

D. Twy Chandler. SYDNOR & HUNDLEY
SEVENTH AND GRACE STREETS.

The Comet Heater

Engagement of the Times-Dispatch. I Lynchburg, Va., February 8.—The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mc-leod, of this city, to Roderick Reddow, has been announced. The marriage will take place early in March. The prospective groom is an attorney's practicing at Birmingham, Ala.

One Hundred Beautiful Silk Dresses Representing the Advance Spring Styles, Exact Copies of Illustrated Models, Placed on Sale To-Day

At $ 15.75

These strikingly handsome models cannot be reproduced under $20.00 to $25.00, and are wonderful values at the above price. You cannot appreciate their real worth and beauty unless you visit the Thalhimer Store and view them with your own eyes. All the new as well as the more staple shades are represented, such as rose, reseda, green, Copenhagen, navy and black and others. Remember, the price, $15.75. On sale for this week only.

BRITISH ADMIRALTY BACKS STACKHOUSE

garded as Rival to That of Shackleton.

HEREAS Sir Ernest Shackleton age of more than forty. has the backing of King George, of the Royal Geograph-ical Society, and of the English-speak-ing public, in his projected expedition McNelll and Souper.

Dr. John McNell was discovered by Mr. Moody, and was associated with him in some of his great evangelistic work, particularly in Chicago, during the World's Fair in 1892. He is a man of rare gifts and great power, and is one pastor of one of the surface of the great and great power, and is in wide demand for evangelistic and exploration of the Antarctic Continuent, J. Foster Stackhouse, who is generally required as a rival to that of shinghand and the leading churches of Toronto, Canada. Dr. Souper, of London, as a writer and the support of the British and expectation as a writer and recruit and forceful, and religious themes which is world-wide. His style is direct and forceful, and he is said to put the subject of the popular address. His pastor ate in England brought him into touch with all classes, and at Crathen he were londered the late Queen Victora. The popular address. His pastor ate in England brought him into touch with all classes, and at Crathen he were londered the late Queen Victora. When the popular address. His pastor ate in England brought him into touch with all classes, and at Crathen he were londered the late Queen Victora. Support of the complete of the Chesapeake, and he had been supported to the first continuence of the popular address. His pastor ate in England brought him into touch with all classes, and at Crathen he were londered the late Queen Victora. Support of the Chesapeake, and the last days of the first curing the last days of the first empire, and he last days of the first empire, and he last days of the first empire, and he last days of the first write a Persian woman of the eresian woman of the capture of the Change, during the many was transmitted and provided as a rival to that of the flower of the Shannon, after the copy in a recruit the provided as a rival to that on children. He was succeeded by his brother, Henry, the the capture of the Chesapeake, and forceful, and he is said to put the subject of the provided as a rival to that one children. He Gordon and Trotter.

S. D. Gordon has attained a world-wide reputation as the author of the noted series of devotional books, "Quiet Talks." No man of this century has had a wider circle of readers and more than 1,000,000 copies of his books have been sold. As a speaker, he is direct and incisive, and his addresses are as strong and popular as his books.

Foster Stackhouse is taking along with him a peer of the realm to do the nouse of Parnell, and a cousin of Charles Stewart Parnell, the great Irish lender. Unlike the latter, Lord Congleton is a determined opponent of Irish home rule, and when last over here he gave out an extraordinary newspaper interview, in which he expressed his sympathy with the wide reputation as the author of the onted series of devotional books, "Quiet Talks." No man of this century has had a wider circle of readers and more than 1,000,000 copies of list books have been sold. As a speaker, he is direct and inclsive, and his addresses are as strong and popular as his books.

Misses Elizabeth Chenery and Margie Riker, of the State Normal, at Fredericksburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. and the son to his only daughter, Princess for the latter, Lord Congleton is a determined opponent of Irish home rule, and when the soloks.

Mel Trotter is the outstanding rescue worker of the American Continent and as a speaker he has tremendous power. His life story is even more thriling than that of Jerry McCamley, of famous Water Street Mission, of New York. He is devoting his life to the "down and outers," and his sympathy for the unfortunate brother makes his work peculiarly effective.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Onancock, Va., February 8.—Several plum trees in Onancock are in full bloom. The trees in general are not as far advanced in bud as at this time last year, although the weather has been fully as warm.

Farmers in all parts of the county are putting in Irish potatoe seed. They are also preparing to bed sweet potaties. A series of farmers' institutes will be held during the next six weeks. The first three meetings were held at Keller. Onley and Hallwood on Monday and Tuesday, under the supervision of C. H. Chilton, county demonstrator. They were exceptionally good and much interest was manifested. The principal speaker at all three meetings was Professor D. C. Johnson, of the Virginia experimental station. An increased interest in scientific farming among the planters of Accounact is being shown daily.

After the sermon at Hillie's Baptist intimate friend of Pope, Swift, Addi sons, and his nephew, Prince Paul, son and Steele, and is mentioned in many of their writings. The archdeacon's nephew, John Parnell, was created a baronet of Ireland, and it was his succession to the latter's throne, gives Lewerenz Avenue. will take piace early in March. The prospective groom is an attorney's practicing at Birmingham, Ala.

Myers—Frazier.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., February 8.—Vosterday afterneon at 1005 Polk Street, Miss Mary E. Frazier and Fred M. Myers were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by Rev. N. M. Tearty being performed by Rev. N. M. Tearty being performed by Rev. N. M. Tearty and on the downfall of Church.

Lewerenz Avenue.

You feed never hesitate to use Residual to use of Besiade which played so notable a role in the entourage of Henry IV. by its loyalty and devotion to the consumer of skin affections. It contains absorption that has been used by other physicians for eighteen years in the treatment of economy. Louis XVIII. owed his escape from the Terrorists at Paris, in the tenderest skin. Practically every druggest stells Resinol Ointment and Resinol and d'Avaray, and on the downfall of Napoleon, and on his own accession to the throne of France, honored the memory of his so faithful retainer, who deformed, and beroft of sight, speech and reason. He was, indeed, an afflicted creature, whose existence was a BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY. ily, but nevertheless survived to the

The second Lord Congleton was a missionary and a Plymouth Brother. His first wife died while he was doing aldermen of the place, migrated to Ire-land, and purchased an estate there in the reign of Charles II. His son, Archiceed to the throne of Servia, especialdeacon Thomas Parnell, of Clorher ly as there seems to be no prospect was celebrated as a poet, and was an of any marriage of King Peter's two

th token of affection and regard because the control of affection and regard because the description of affection and regard because the last Alexis Karageorgevitch, who has been spending the winter in New York, in County Wieklow.

Sir John Parnell on his death left the Avondale estate to his third son, William, whose own son, John Henry, married Della, daughter of Commedce Charles Stewart, of the United States Navy, and was the father of Charles Stewart Parnell, the Irish Nationalist leader. Since the latter's death the Avondale property has been purchased by the government for use as a national forestry school for Ireland, the rooms which he occupied being kept as nearly as possible as they were during his lifetime.

I mentioned above that Sir John Par-

I mentioned above that Sir John Par- secure presentation as Princess Kara-I mentioned above that Sir John Parnell bequeathed the Hayes estate of Avondale to his third son. William.
The Parnell estate and the baronetey passed to the second son, Henry Parnell, who was created Lord Congleton.
If this peer's elder brother was elimif this peer's elder brother was elimthe parnell estate and the baronetey though the former Mrs. Huger Pratt was an intimate friend of Mme. Vesnitch, the New York wife of the Servian minister plenipotentiary in Paris, inated from the succession to the family honors and estates, it was by virtue of a special act of Ireland's Par-Alexis Karageorgevitch's wedding in Count Elie d'Avaray, elected last week to the presidency of the Jockey Club of France, in succession to the Duc de Fezensac, who died last fall, is a rich widower, and only brother of the forth Duc d'Avaray. The duke's divorced wife, nee Comtesse Mercy d'Argentiau—he divorced her before Soap. Upon the first application I noticed a change, and after four days my baby was entirely cured. I cannot praise your remedies too highly, and recommend them to all my friends."

(Signed) Mrs. Henry Mosher, 154

Last year she disposed in New York, for a mere song, of whole boxes of innity irelives, including letters 50 dressed by Empress Maria Theresa and by Frederick the Great, to her ancestors in the eighteenth century. I understand that she is now living in the South. the South.

had died during his exile, by bestowing upon Antoine's father the dukedom of Avaray, at the same time ordering that the royal lilles of France should thenceforth figure on the escut-cheon of the D'Avarays, along with the eloquent motto, "Vicit iter durum His Expedition to Antarctic Rewho is the new president of the French Jockey Club. (Copyright, 1914, by the Brentwood

NEWS OF ASHLAND

Women Need Not Suffer ORANGEINE (POWDERS)

two faces are exactly alike you realize the advantage of having the size and mounting of your Glasses determined by your individual requirements. Our special attention to these points is one of the reasons we GOOD FOR THE EYES The S. GALESKI Optical Co

Main and KODAK Broad St.

Montague Mfg. Co.

LUMBER AND MILLWORK, Office, Yards and Factory:

Broad Street and Belt Line.

The sale you have been waiting for, is on. Bargain Tables for the whole

